Announcement

As of February 2026, the Clan MacDubhsith Council of Presidents has not identified a suitable candidate to put forward to a Family Convention for the position of Clan Commander. This information has been conveyed to Carrick Pursuivant, the Clan's Supervising Officer at the court of the Lord Lyon. As a result, the Council and Carrick concur that the Family Convention of the Clan MacDubhsith planned for May, 2026 in Scotland should be postponed.

Further information regarding next actions by the Council for the Commander search will be forthcoming and posted on the Council and Society websites. Thank you for understanding and for your continuing support of our Clan.

Sincerely,
